

Kassandra Bossell Artist Bio 2016 www.whysas.com

Kassandra graduated from University of Sydney with a BA, 1986 and a B. Vis Arts, 1990. She begins an MFA Research at UNSW in July 2016. Kassandra has had solo and group exhibitions in Australia and overseas and has completed several residencies.

Her public commissions include Sydney Opera House, Melbourne Museum, SOCOG Sydney 2000, Opera Australia, Powerhouse Museum, Old Parliament House, National Museum of Australia and City of Sydney.

Kassandra has lectured in Sculpture at the National Art School and held workshops at numerous universities, colleges and festivals around Australia. She has been selected for numerous prizes and won the 2007 Darwin Film Festival 'Out There' and 1995 Liverpool Hospital Public Art Competition.

In 2016 Kassandra was awarded an Art on the Greenway Grant from Leichhardt Council, an Artist to Artist Grant from NT Arts in 2010, a Regional Art Grant in 2007 and a Pat Corrigan Grant in 1993.